Election/Restriction

Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. § 121:

- I. Claims 1-9, drawn to a package containing a folded absorbent article, classified in class 206, subclass 438.
- II. Claims 10-24, drawn to a folded absorbent article, classified in class 604, subclass 385.201.
- III. Claims 25-32, drawn to a method of using an absorbent article and packaging component, classified in class 604, subclass 385.02.
- IV. Claims 33-35, drawn to a system having an absorbent article that is rolled, classified in class 604, subclass 385.01.

Inventions I and II are related as combination and subcombination. Inventions in this relationship are distinct if it can be shown that (1) the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed for patentability, and (2) that the subcombination has utility by itself or in other combinations (MPEP § 806.05(c)). In the instant case, the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed because the package can be used to contain a materially different absorbent article. The subcombination has separate utility such as the folded absorbent article can be used without a package.

Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and the search required for Group I is not required for Group II, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Art Unit: 3761

Inventions I, II, IV and III are related as product and process of use. The inventions can be shown to be distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) the process for using the product as claimed can be practiced with another materially different product or (2) the product as claimed can be used in a materially different process of using that product (MPEP § 806.05(h)). In the instant case the absorbent articles of I, II and IV may be used in a materially different process than that of III, for example, they could be used by a wearer to collect exudates.

Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and the search required for Groups I, II and IV is not required for Group III, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Inventions I, II, and IV are unrelated. Inventions are unrelated if it can be shown that they are not disclosed as capable of use together and they have different modes of operation, different functions, or different effects (MPEP § 806.04, MPEP § 808.01). In the instant case the different inventions are defined by absorbent article that has a specific unfolding property (I, II) as opposed to an absorbent article that has specific unrolling properties (IV).

Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and the search required for Groups I and II is not required for Group IV, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

A telephone call was made to Amanda Church on 17 January 2006 to request an oral election to the above restriction requirement, but did not result in an election being made.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

Art Unit: 3761

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
